2021 Community Award Winners

The Rotary Club of Batesville would like to announce our 2021 Community Award Winners. Please help me in congratulating them. They will be presented with an award at our Officer Induction/Award Ceremony to be held Monday evening, June 28, 2021.

Please help us share and like these posts on our FaceBook page!!!

1. Making a Difference Service Award:

Autumn and Steve Ravisconi - Autumn and Steve have been selected for their endless efforts and dedication to meet a tremendous need in our community. In 2014 Autumn started serving free meals to those in our community who were in need. Steve joined Autumn's efforts soon after and they have since expanded their ministry called Our Father's Table serving over 10,000 meals last year.

2. Doctor/Nurse/Care Worker of the Year:

Julie Dozier Nurse - Julie has worked at Batesville Family Practice for many years and was selected for her unwavering care and compassion for her patients. The last year has been difficult for both healthcare workers and patients alike and Julie's love for what she does has helped her patients feel at ease and cared for.

3. Outstanding Community Service Award:

Dr. Mark Williams, DVM Watson Creek Vet -Dr. Williams has been a staple of our community in veterinary care for many years. He was selected for his years of dedication and help to The Boy Scouts, animals, Farmers, Families, and many other areas. He has made a significant impact in our community for the sole purpose of truly helping others with his time and services.

4. Educator of the Year:

Deborah Frazier - UACCB - Debbie has been a long time Rotarian and Educator. Recently retired, she has been pivotal in the success and growth of UACCB. Debbie was selected for helping to lead an invaluable education institution for our community and to provide countless opportunities for not only Independence County, but all surrounding areas.

5. Role Model of the Year:

Brandon Dayberry - Brandon was selected for his countless hours of dedication to our community. Brandon works full-time for Southside School District and has been a member of the Independence County Sheriff's Office Reserve Program since 2016. In addition to his duties at Southside School District he dedicates several hours per year in training as a Reserve Officer and member of the Sniper team. He works events all throughout the year to help the Sheriff's department ensure the safety of the citizens of Independence County.
