Dr. Stuart H. Hoke, Reverend, Trinity Episcopal Cathedral
911 - A 20 Year Anniversary Remembrance

Born in Memphis, and raised across the Mississippi River in Blytheville, the Rev. Dr. Stuart Hoke has been a priest of the Episcopal Church for forty-nine years—three of which were here at St Mark's in the mid 1970s. Stuart took retirement in 2008 as Executive Assistant to the Rector of Trinity Wall Street and Missioner to St. Paul's Chapel at Ground Zero.

After graduating from Southern Methodist University in Dallas, Stuart attended the Episcopal Divinity School in Cambridge, Massachusetts, where he received the Master of Divinity degree. Ordained in 1972, he spent the early part of his ministry serving congregations in Oklahoma, Arkansas and Texas.

In 1996, Hoke completed the Master of Sacred Theology degree at New York's General Theological Seminary, and was awarded the Doctor of Theology degree in the spring of 2000.

In his extensive work for the past 30 years in the ministry of recovery, Stuart has been a frequent conference and retreat conductor throughout the Episcopal Church; and currently serves as an Adjunct Professor at New York's General Seminary where he has pioneered two courses on the Church's role in the treatment of alcoholism and addictive illness.

On September 11, 2001, Dr. Hoke was standing at the entrance of the World Trade Center when it was hit by terrorist attacks. On that day and in the months and years afterwards, he worked at Ground Zero in rescue and recovery efforts. His unique story is one of many that strengthened our nation during years healing from the destruction.

Stuart resides in downtown Little Rock where he has been an assisting priest at Trinity Cathedral, does volunteer work at the Stewpot, takes courses in intensive Spanish, receives instruction as an organ student, and travels the world when possible. His two sons who live in North Carolina, and the great joy in his life is granddaughter Millie
