this is going to be a marathon and not a sprint.
 I sent him a photo of your card Sally. That brightened his day. He's getting mail now at the hospital which helps him stay connected - and doesn't require him to try and talk. I will attach a copy of his hospital address if anyone should ask you. Once again thank you for checking on us "

Received a text from Lori on Wednesday she and Klaus were headed home after her doctor's appointment.

All good reports and she is moving from the walker to a cane, also not taking any pain medication.

The doctor gave the ok for Lori to work towards driving , her comment , "Yippie , Life is good".

Continued prayers for a full recovery.

Thank you.

Board of Directors Meetings to Resume

By Virgil (Jack) Rueter on Friday, July 17, 2020

After a lengthy hiatus, our HSV Board of Director meetings are set to resume next week, on July 24, 2020. The first of these will be held at John Weidert's home at 35 Saldana Way. The time is set for 11:00AM and is to follow immediately after the regular Live/Virtual meeting at the same location. All Board members are cautioned to follow the new mask directive from our Arkansas Governor. These new rules go into effect on Monday, July 20, 2020. The basic rule is to wear masks whenever you are in public and have the possibility that the 6' spacing rule may not be possible.

This meeting will be covering a lot of territory, as we try to play catch-up for missing several meetings due to the COVID-19 issues. Board Members should plan on discussing upcoming events, regular meeting planning, and administrative issues from our President Susan Clark. Susan will be issuing an agenda at approximately the same time she issues the meeting agenda for the week.

I am personally looking forward to resuming these meetings, as input from all Board Members has been missing for too long. Bring your thinking cap along with you.....
