Fr. Craig Dalferes - Rotarian of the Day

Rev. Craig Dalferes is pastor of St. Matthew's Episcopal Church & School where he has served since 2004. He is married to Jennifer and they have two sons, Charles and Joseph, who are 19 and 15 years old, respectively. ♦We feel very blessed to be part of the Houma community, and also the Rotary family. I have learned so much about our community and our world through my involvement in Rotary, and I so enjoy the fellowship and chance to serve others.♦

Ms. Fallon ♦Fe Fe♦ Ellender -- Guest Speaker

Ms. Ellender is co-owner of Calypso Paddle Company in Golden Meadow. She is originally from Pointe-aux-Chenes where she developed a love for nature and the outdoors. She graduated from South Terrebonne High School, and then attended Nichols where she studied the culinary arts. She also has an interest in marine biology.

After living for awhile in Florida, she has returned home to pursue her passion, which is helping people learn more about all that our area has to offer with its natural beauty. In addition to teaching folks about kayaking and paddle boarding, she also offers SUP Yoga classes at the Bayouland YMCA and elsewhere. She believes that we all could benefit from getting outdoors, moving our bodies, and enjoying our rich natural heritage here in South Louisiana.

Happy Bucks!

It's the first Wednesday of the month, and that means it's time for ♦Happy Bucks!♦ Bring your happy announcements and your bucks!!!

Weekly Words of Wisdom

Be thankful we're not getting all the government we're paying for.
