Elmy Savoie- Rotarian of the Day

Elmy Savoie joined our club this year at the invitation of Jerry Ledet. Elmy is the Community Relations Coordinator for the Thibodaux Regional Health System.

Elmy enjoys reading, traveling, and has an unhealthy addiction to buying shoes. She has been married to Jeff Savoie for over 25 years with two children: Sara, who is attending LSU, and Joseph, who is at Vanderbilt.

"Originally, I accepted the invitation to Rotary because Jerry was my boss and said I should do it but after attending I realized that it was great fit for me. I have always believed in giving back to the community, volunteering, and helping others and Rotary was a perfect way for me to do so."

Alina Merlos - United Way -- Guest Speaker

Alina Merlos is a 1986 Nicholls State graduate. After graduation she started her career as the education director for the Red Cross in New Orleans. After a year, Alina became the non-surgical retina clinic director at the LSU Eye Center for two years before accepting the marketing director's job at the Cancer Association of Greater New Orleans. It was a job that allowed her to work with five different United Ways throughout Louisiana, as well as helping to develop Camp Challenge, a week long camp for children with cancer.

In 1996 she was able to come home as the new executive director of our local United Way.
