

“The Mirror”

CHARLOTTE ROTARY CLUB – 9/03/2019

GREETER: None.

INVOCATION: Brian Lautzenheiser led us in prayer.

SINGING: Gregg Guetschow led us in “Rotary” and “I’ve Been Working on the Railroad”.

VISITING ROTARIANS: None.

GUESTS: Lee Wheaton brought Dr. Mandy Stewart.

JR. ROTARIANS: Our Jr. Rotarians for September are Ashley Friar and Justin Dykstra.

Ashley is the daughter of Kelly and Mike Friar. She is active in National Honor Society, MyLead, RYLA, and Varsity Basketball. Her community service includes volunteering for Christmas Kiddies, Touching Souls Foundation and basketball camps. After high school, Ashley plans to attend Grand Valley State University to study Child Psychology.

Justin is the son of Kris and John Dykstra. He is involved in National Honor Society, RYLA, PAL, Basketball and Baseball. His community service includes volunteering for “Drive One for UR School”, Special Olympics, Relay for Life and basketball camps. Following high school, Justin plans to join the Michigan National Guard where he will take Helicopter Pilot training, followed by continuing his education at either Western Michigan or Northern Michigan.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

- ★ Next week we will be meeting at Bennett Park in lieu of our regular meeting, where we will dine picnic style. Afterward we will enjoy the running of our annual Duck Race.

SPOTLIGHT: Brian Lautzenheiser was born and raised in Charlotte, where he was always under the care of Dr. Leeser. He graduated from CHS in 2001 and then went on to play baseball for Central Michigan University while earning a degree. He's served 12 years as an insurance agent in Charlotte before joining the team at Charlotte Insurance Agency where he continues today. He volunteers heavily in the community. He and his wife of 15 years, Jackie, have 6 children, now all in school as of this year! Next Week: Don Sovey 50 / 50: Our Spotlight Boy, Brian, won the drawing and took home $38.00!

SGT-AT-ARMS: Brian paid for his win. Instead of other fines, we passed the hat for Polio Plus in honor of Chuck Archer's Mother - collected $128!

PROGRAM: Our September Jr. Rotarian, Justin Dykstra, gave our program detailing his experience this summer at RYLA camp. RYLA (Rotary Youth Leadership Awards) is an intensive leadership experience organized by Rotary clubs and districts where you develop your skills as a leader while having fun and making connections. The participants are nominated by Rotary clubs. In our Rotary district the camp is held in Dowling, Michigan at the Battle Creek Outdoor Education Center. One of the many sessions involved group strategizing to overcome obstacles through cooperation. Thanks to Justin for being with us and providing a great program on his insights to this experience.

NEXT MEETING – September 10, 2019 – MEETING AT BENNETT PARK, Duck Race

Until next time,

JTP
