

Gull Lake Area Rotary Club

News for the Week of April 23, 2020

Steve Lewis, President Pete Graham, Editor

I try to do good in the world not out of fear for hell or reward of heaven, but because it feels better not to be a jerk

Upcoming Programs and Events

April 23: On-line club meeting via Zoom. Speaker: Laura Lutterbeck – Junior Achievement.

Thursday April 16

We held a trial club meeting on Zoom. We overcame a few glitches and about 22 people participated. It was a little chaotic but fun.

Announcements

Next week we will have a full Zoom meeting with a program and open to friends, visitors and guests. The presenter will be Laura Lutterbeck from Junior Achievement.. Mike Gallagher will send joining instructions and link. Do not try to use the link from April 16 meeting.

This year's GLARC Rotary Hero is Marie Stech. She will be honored at the District Conference (new date TBA).

We will be doing a highway clean-up on Thursday April 23 at 9:00 AM. Contact Al Pollard for information and to volunteer.

The Richland Farmers' Market tentatively plans to open on June 10.

Need a face mask? Contact Kim Lewis.

The demand for food is way up at the South Central Michigan Food Bank. Volunteers are needed (precautions are being practiced).. Contact Mike Gallagher or Bruce Dewey for more information.

Ed McCarty's mother will celebrate her 105th birthday this week. Want to join a drive-by salute to her? Contact Ed.

Visit our web site. www.gulllakearearotary.org -- and see us on Facebook at <https://www.facebook.com/GLRotary>