January 2021 Service Project: Books to Prisoners

Champaign Rotary usually does some type of service project in January in memory of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. This year, we have decided to make Books to Prisoners our January Cup Recipient and also collect books to donate. Prisoners who read have a much lower recidivism rate than those who do not so we will not only be helping prisoners in Illinois but society as a whole with our donations. Books to Prisoners is unable to collect random books at this time because they cannot hold book sales and do not have the space to store them so they are asking that only requested topics be donated. I have listed the book price on Amazon next to each item. You may order a book on Amazon and have it shipped to: Janet Ellis-Nelson, 1905 Moraine Drive, Champaign 61822 or buy a book and drop it off at my house. If you happen to have used paperback copies on any of these topics, you may donate those. Multiple copies of books are needed. Please let Janet know if you have shipped a book to her house; Marlys enters our volunteers for each service project in My Rotary. She needs donations by Sunday, January 17 so she can take them to Independent Media Center on the afternoon of January 18. You may also donate to Books to Prisoners on our website anytime during the month of January. Go to champaignrotary.org, and click on Make a Charity Cup Donation (lower left). Only paperback editions are allowed:
