The Spoke

Highlights of the October 22, 2020 Club Meeting

By David Anders & Kevin Horrigan on Friday, October 23, 2020

Opening of the Meeting:

Rob Caird, President Elect conducted this week's meeting, and he started the meeting on time. Marie Castetter opened the meeting with the Pledge, followed by Ron Anderson with the Prayer and Aaron Greenwalt with the Four Way Test. Jim Greig conducted Happy Bucks and Jeff Harris sold 50/50 tickets, on behalf of Dave Anders, who showed up exactly at noon. Tom Joyner's ticket was pulled, but he did not win, but he will sell tickets next week.

Approximately 40 Rotarians were present, in person, for this week's meeting. This does not include those attending via Zoom.

Announcements:

- Rob reminded everyone that we will be sponsoring the Dress Blues Christmas Party along with Stillinger Family Funeral Home for our local Army Reserve Unit. This formal event will be held at Heartland Resort on the evening of December 12th. Volunteers will be needed that evening to help serve food. This will be a Make-up; last year we prepped and served from around 6pm to 9pm.
- Marie Castetter announced that Bell Ringers supporting Shop with a Deputy will be conducted on Saturday, December 5th. This will be a Make-up. Volunteers will be asked to ring bells for 2 hours. We are delighted that Dress Blues and Bell Ringers are on different days, unlike the past. Just more opportunities to serve. We are hoping that Interact Club will be joining us and Rotarians are welcome to bring their children or grandchildren, so they can participate in service to our community.
- Rob Caird announced that during the month of November, the District will be matching Paul Harris Points for any contributions made to the General Fund. Get your check books ready in November to be a part of Every Rotarian- Every Year. Contributions of $25 or more are required and the District Match is for contributions of $100 or more.
- Stacey Wixson announced that our Rotary Raffle will only accept cash (see enclosed story). A Press Release has been sent to the Daily Reporter and our website and Facebook page have been updated. Tickets are now officially on sale until 2pm Wednesday, October 28th. As of 3pm on Friday, the 23rd, the pot was up to $20,025 and growing. We are now talking serious money! Share our Facebook posts and tell all your friends and family about the raffle. $10,000 or more in winnings certainly will pay for out of town friends and family to fly in and collect their money.
- The 5 charities benefiting from the Rotary Raffle are:
 - Hancock County Food Pantry
 - Kenneth Butler Memorial Soup Kitchen
 - The Hope House
 - The Landing
 - Talitha Koum Women's Recovery House
- The following proposed members were announced for the second time, if there are no objections, Dave Stillinger plans to schedule a Fireside Chat with them on Tuesday, October 20th at 5:15pm at Stillinger Family Funeral Home:
 - Adam Jurs New State Farm Agent
 - Debra Smith Director of Greenfield Main Street
 - Sherry Haines Manager of Miller's Jewelry
 - Alisha Miller owner of Rogue Physical Therapy and Nutrition
 - David Elser District Director for the Boys Scouts of America

A Fireside chat was held this past Tuesday for Adam Jurs and Debra Smith. Arrangements are

Program:

Kevin Horrigan and Jody Thompson are the co-chairpersons for the John Long Vocational Award. Unfortunately, Jodi has caught the flu and recently had heart surgery, so she was unable to attend. She is recovering but could use our prayers.

Kevin with the help of Jeannine Gray, who nominated this year's winner conducted the award ceremony. Kevin started by thanking both Betsy and Sherry Haines for donating the plaque, as in years gone by when Leonard was alive.

Rotary International's motto is SERVICE ABOVE SELF. Fostering our commitment to service is the foundation of every club. The five Avenues of Service for Rotary and its Club Members are:

Service to our Community...Service to our Club...Service to Youth...International Service...and Vocational Service. Rotary International recognizes October as Vocational Service Month so this is a great time for us to present this award.

In the Vocational Service area, our club has searched for members of our community, who are not Rotarians, to honor with the Vocational Service Award. Chairing the committee focused on this search for many years was a man himself dedicated to service...Dr. John A. Long. John was an Optometrist by profession and a Rotarian by choice. He was a member of this Club from 1955 until the time of his death in 2014. We honored John after his passing by renaming this Award in his memory. Today we will recognize our 2020 award recipient.

THE PURPOSE OF THIS AWARD---is to honor an individual for meritorious conduct or service in her or his professional and/or vocational activities. This service can be to individuals, to the community at large, and/or to other organizations.

ELIGIBILITY FOR THE AWARD---requires a connection to Hancock County through residence, business, and/or area of service. Rotarians and their immediate families are not eligible.

NOMINATIONS---come from Rotarians submitting a narrative description of the meritorious service of the individual.

JUDGING---of the nominees was done by committee members.

This year's Rotary Club of Greenfield John Long Memorial Vocational Service Award recipient is Captain Bridget Foy of the Hancock County Sheriff's Office. Kevin mentioned that the five avenues of service for Rotary. And while this particular award is given for Vocational Service, he pointed out that Bridget is equally deserving for her outstanding Service to Youth and to our Community.

Rob Caird presented Bridget with her plaque which read

The Rotary Club of Greenfield John Long Memorial Vocational Award presented to Bridgette Foy in appreciation of your untiring efforts, dedication and advocacy for all children in Hancock County that have been a victim of crime and for all your hard work to help make Zoey's Place a reality.

Jeannine Gray followed by sharing with the club that Bridget has been with the Hancock County Sheriff's Department for 27 years. Bridget was a detective for 5 years, a Dare Officer and is now in charge of the County Jail. She was recently promoted to captain. Bridget was the driving force in getting members of our community to support the creation of Zoey's Place. Her fundraising efforts were relentless, driven by love for children.

Bridget recognized a host of people who were instrumental in the creation of Zoey's Place. Board members Brent Eaton, Amanda Everidge and Sheriff Brad Burkhart were guests and present for Bridget's Award Ceremony. Board member and Rotarian, Rita Fish was present via Zoom. Rotarian Marie Castetter was also recognized for her hard work and support for the creation of Zoey's Place.

Bridget shared with the club that a quote she heard at a child advocacy seminar has stuck with her and has been an inspiration to her

It is easier to grow young children, than to fix a broken adult

Congratulations Bridget!
