PROGRAM:

Lafayette Kiwanis Club joined us today as we heard from Dave Shondell, Purdue Head Volleyball Coach (shown here with our RYE student Peppi). This is his seventeenth year at Purdue where he and his teams have enjoyed a great deal of success. The team has six new freshmen that are on campus now and starting to get to know the other players. Three of the players are currently playing with a national team. Although they face a tough schedule, the team enjoys the large crowds that come to cheer them on in their new air-conditioned facility.

Jeff Brohm has been Head Football Coach for two years. Even though the team experienced a tough end-of-season last year, there is reason to be excited about the upcoming season. All the players work hard in practice and academically. Training takes place all year round. There are eight seniors on the team. Look for improvements in the offensive line as the Boilers face a schedule of competitive teams. Fan turnout makes a difference - plan to attend some volleyball and some football games this coming season.

FIVE-MINUTE FEATURE:

Stuart Gutwein spoke about Gutwein Law, a firm he helped to start in 2012. It has grown to having twenty-five employees now and offices in Lafayette, Indianapolis, and Minneapolis. Some of their areas of focus are business law, intellectual property, employment law and estate planning.
