Program Update - Jan. 20th
Diane Burks, Program Director
Plainfield Youth Assistance Program

Plainfield Rotary's own Diane Burks, who is the Plainfield Youth Assistance Program's Director, provided an update on the status of this program, which we have provided a $4,000.00 ($2,000 from our club and a matching $2,000 from our Rotary district) grant to.

The purpose of PYAP is to provide assistance to Plainfield youth who have no responsible adult in their lives. Plans for the organization have changed significantly due to the pandemic. The program will eventually need volunteers, but that need is modest and already filled at present. At present, six children from the 3rd to 5th grades have been enrolled in the program and they will work with in-person volunteer mentors for 12-14 weeks.

PYAP is a registered Domestic Nonprofit Corporation that would welcome your generous donations.
