Program Update - May 12th Board Retreat & Strategic Planning Session

Your Board met last week to discuss plans for the club's next administrative year, beginning July 1st. Brian Culp will become the new president of the Rotary Club of Plainfield on that date. With your help, Brian and the Board have plans to grow our club by five members before June 30, 2022.

Also discussed at the retreat were potential Rotary matching grants that your club could sponsor. Ideas centered around things we could do in conjunction with Plainfield's new Town Hall and its adjacent Performing Arts Center. Specific ideas included a Town clock or a Town bell in the exterior public areas of these new buildings. Our club will work with fellow Rotarian, Town Manager Andrew Klinger, to get more definition and cost estimates for these ideas.

Ryan Rash, your current Club Vice President, also announced to the Board that his other work and community commitments will not allow him to progress to President-Elect and Club President over the next two years. We greatly appreciate Ryan's commitment to Rotary and look forward to his continuing on our Board. So, we will be looking for another member to take on these responsibilities over the next several years. Please speak with Brian Culp if you have interest in learning more about these club leadership positions.
