Program Update - May 19th Sherry Sighting North Salem State Bank (NSSB)

Fellow Rotarian Sherry Sighting gave a presentation last week on the history of North Salem State Bank. NSSB was founded in 1923. It is actually a successor bank to the old North Salem Bank, that closed several years earlier. NSSB remained a single branch institution until its expansion into the Danville market in 1989. It now has ten branches across Hendricks, Boone, Putnam, and Montgomery counties. NSSB is a publicly, but very closely, held bank. It is highly regarded as a community bank both in Indiana and across the U.S.A. Perhaps most importantly to Rotarians, NSSB's commitment to involvement in and support of community activities is second to none in our region. We thank them for their support.

Other News: Congratulations to Alexa Kinnaman and Michael Reynolds! They are the John W. Himmelheber Memorial Scholarship award winners for 2021. They will visit us this summer.
