Program Update - July 7th Installation of new officers & induction of new member

Last week Plainfield Rotary's new officers and board were inaugurated for the 2021-2022 administrative year. We welcome Brian Culp as our new President, Royce Carter as our President-Elect, and Daniel Kinnamon as our Vice President, along with Selina Lewis assuming the best role in Rotary Club leadership - Immediate Past President. In his inaugural remarks, Brian asked for volunteers to join our club's various committees. He also indicated that he will be transforming our traditional monthly Club Assembly into something more useful and interesting to the members. We also formally welcomed our newest member, Dave Williams, into the club. We welcome Dave into our club, and wish Brian a very successful year!

Alexa Kinnaman, along with her mother Tracy, visited our club last week to accept her John W. Himmelheber Memorial Scholarship. Alexa will be attending the University of Indianapolis, planning to major in Medical Laboratory Science and minor in Spanish. We congratulate her and wish her well in her studies at UIndy and in all of her future endeavors!
