Program Update - Oct 27th Brittany Gipson, MSW, LCSW Care to Change Counseling

At the invitation of Rotarian Candace Balzano, Brittany Gipson from Avon's Care to Change Counseling service spoke to our club last week. Brittany is one of 16 counseling professionals at Care to Change. This group of licensed, experienced counselors and therapists has an approach to helping people that is built upon a Biblical foundation. Care to Change is a member of the American Association of Christian Counselors.

Care to Change has been in existence for five years, with offices in Avon and Brownsburg. The staff offers a very wide variety of counseling services in areas such as addiction, adoption support, anxiety, ADD/ADHD, anger, body image/eating disorders, child development & teen issues, family relationships, financial planning/debt mitigation, grief & loss, health/wellness, military & veterans issues/PTSD, sexual abuse survivor support, trauma, and more. In addition to individual counseling, Care to Change also provides programs for employers, schools, and churches.
