Photos and Ramrod by Fred Kerestury

President Amanda called the meeting to order at 12:15 p.m. with the ringing of the bell, the singing of “America the Beautiful” and the Pledge of Allegiance.

Today’s invocation was given by Mark Mroz. Autumn and apples and harvest and thankfulness and blessings!

Guest

Tammy Bertrand introduced Amanda Hamilton, a prospective member from the Elyria office of Edward Jones—and Tammy says to be on our best behavior!

Song of the Day

Past President Rich led us in the singing of “R-O-T-A-R-Y, M-O-U-S-E” (think Mickey Mouse).

Announcements

- ERC Board Meeting will be this coming Tuesday, September 21 at 8 a.m. All are welcome.
- We are a go for the Apple Festival. Volunteers are still needed for Saturday evening.
- Please remember to fill out your survey regarding Covid vaccinations.
- Past President Rich issued an Axe Throwing Challenge with Oberlin Rotary Club.

Happy Dollars

Fred had two happy dollars because the Steelers beat the Buffalo Bills on Sunday. Rich added one for the same reason and so did Chuck Hirsch.

Today's Speaker

Chris Pyanowski introduced Marsalis Hammons, the founder and CEO of Leaders of Today.

Marsalis founded Leaders of Today due to the huge disparity between south Elyria and the rest of Lorain County among income and education. Leaders of Today helps to provide Elyria and Lorain high school students with the tools and resources they need to exhibit positive leadership in the classroom, locker room, and the community by allowing young minds to think larger about their community, city, and world. Leaders of Today encourages its participants to dream big, take action, be empowered, and continue learning.

Marsalis can be contacted for more information at lotloraincounty@gmail.com or by calling 440-452-5189.

Today's Book

The book donated to Elyria Public Library in honor of our speaker was, "My Day with Panye," by Tami Charles.
