Lorain Rotary Club

Dear Rotarians,

It's MARCH . . . it's Spring, more daylight, March Madness, Women's History Month, St. Patrick's Day, getting ready for the Easter Bunny, and more people being vaccinated. I remember last March, all of our lives began to change drastically: people were sent home to work, bars and restaurants closed, we began to wear masks, take temperatures and purchase hand sanitizer. Life is beginning to look better. Plus we have nine new Rotary members this year and hopefully soon, we can all get together in-person to meet them.

For Rotary International it is Water and Sanitation Month. So glad Lorain Rotary has helped with clean water projects in the past and are looking to do something in the near future. We have finally completed the delivery of ALL the dictionaries to ALL the elementary schools in Lorain. Over the next couple months, Lorain Rotary will be hosting a four-way speech contest for area high school students, scholarships for students past their freshmen year in college and the Prucha Fund to help non-profits will be available soon. A spring clean-up will be scheduled at Settlers' Watch and one with Main Street Lorain for downtown. Rotary is sponsoring flowers in one of the big pots on Broadway to brighten up our town. We will host a new fundraiser for the chance to win jewelry, flowers, dinner and candy which will be right in time for Mother's Day. Thank you Rob!

I encourage all of you to join our Rotary Zoom meetings on the first and third Thursdays until we can meet again in person at Spectrum Vocational Center. Speaking of Spectrum, Cheryl, Christy and Gail from Spectrum wanted Rotarians to know that they have Faroh's Candy for sale if you need any for your Easter basket. You can contact them directly or visit their store within the new Ariel Hotel.

Looking forward to concerts and festivals again at the Black River Landing, visits to the Lorain Lighthouse and Lakeview Beach, K Cream Korner ice cream, boating, fishing and warm weather. Stay safe and healthy everyone! Respectfully, Dina Ferrer, President
