NIKKI WORKMAN
DIRECTOR OF COMMUNICATIONS

Marion County Board of Developmental Disabilities - MCBDD

Serving more than 800 Marion County residents, the Marion County Board of Developmental Disabilities (MCBDD) may provide, or arrange for, service and support administration, early childhood services, supported living/residential services, family supports, job training, employment services, Special Olympics, and many others (based on resources). In 2020 alone, MCBDD linked those served with over 815,000 connections to resources and support. In many cases, this work is done by coordinating 50+ partner providers with the appropriate level of help for those we serve to live, learn, and earn in the Marion Community. MCBDD's way of delivering services has evolved and it is important to accurately understand the work that MCBDD does in our community.

Nicole (Nikki) Workman, director of communications at Marion County Board of Developmental Disabilities (MCBDD), will speak to us regarding the role of MCBDD in Marion County, how it relates to their partner providers, and how public funds are used to create an inclusive environment for those in our community with developmental disabilities.

Workman brings with her over twenty-five years of experience in the field of marketing and communications. She has worked in every realm - from media buying, trade show organization, event planning, and sales, to graphic & web design, public relations, and social media. She is a graduate of The Ohio State University degree in Journalism and Communications. Workman also holds a Master's degree in Communication and Leadership from Gonzaga University in Spokane, Washington.
