Jill Chitwood of Sights Unseen Travel

Jill has been a resident of Marion County for 57 years. She is married to Wayne Chitwood, and they have 2 children, Patrick and Kelly. She has done many things while cruising through life. She worked at Whirlpool early in her career, but then switched gears and was in the Profession Indoor Football world for over 10 years. She also worked with the Red Cross, AmeriCorps, and several other things in between, before settling in on a career as an independent Travel agent.

Jill has been a proud recipient of the Marion County Clara Barton Spectrum Award for Women. She received the Humanitarian Award on November 17, 1999. Jill and her husband are proud members of CLIA (CRUISE LINE International Association) and are affiliated with Cruise Brothers – the oldest family owned travel company in the United States, being in operation for over 47 years.

Jill and Wayne founded and co-own, Sights Unseen Travel Agency. They have been working professionally in the travel industry for approximately 2 years now but have been helping their friends and family plan their travel adventures for almost 6 years. They wanted to be able to give people more options and inexpensive prices, with continual support before, during and after their travels. Currently they work from their home and are pretty much available, 24-7. They love helping people build their bucket list and then help them fulfill it.
