New leadership development series begins March 30

Feedback from district Rotarians ranked leadership development as one of the top educational opportunities club members value and expect as a member of Rotary. In response to the feedback, District 6690 created a new Leadership Development Program for Rotary members who are exploring leadership opportunities in their work or in Rotary.

Rotarians on the Rise - Unlocking Leadership Potential features six Zoom classes from 5:00-6:15 p.m. starting Tuesday, March 30. Best of all, the sessions are free. Subsequent classes are planned for the same time on April 8, April 22, May 6 and May 13 with graduation conducted on May 25.

If you are considering club or district leadership or leadership in your company or are already a volunteer leader and would like continuing development, this program is for you. District 6690 trainer Dana Vogelmeier, CPTD, will share more information about the program at the March 30 kickoff session. Rotarians and Rotaractors can register for the event by going to the district website, www.rotary6690.org. After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the meeting.
