PROGRAM

Francine Swiger introduced the Speakers for this morning's presentation: Tony Coury and Phil Snyder (Aux. Officer and teaches Law Enforcement at Mid-East) – presentation will cover the challenges that Zanesville Police Officers face on a daily basis and will include incident simulations.

Tony played a recording made by Paul Harvey, describing a policeman.

Tony stated that there are 56 police officers to patrol the 5 districts that make up Zanesville.

Tony enacted the first simulation, a hostage situation at a school, with a student being held hostage by another student with a hand gun. Missy Best played the police officer responding to the hostage situation. The enactment demonstrated the stressful situation and the split-second decision a police officer faces. Tony also described the time spent making a detailed report of the incident and the cost for cloud storage to store all the reports (a quarter of a million dollars).

Phil Snyder conducted the remainder of the simulations, with assistance from Marcus Farley, Becky Clawson, Dana Matz, Kati Mangini, Julie McLain, Keely Warden, & Heather Shepherd.

Tony closed the presentation with a video of police pipe bands playing a very emotional Amazing Grace.
