About our Guest Speaker & her presentation:

"Millenials Impact on the Workplace: A Generational Discussion You HAVEN'T Had Yet!"

Tired of hearing generational programs that list off mind-numbing statistics? Then you'll love workforce retention expert Cara Silletto's award-winning approach to bridging today's generational gaps to create a place where people WANT to work. Her unique perspective on how today's new workforce is impacting retention, productivity, and profitability fuels an eye-opening discussion that will shift the way you lead your people.

Workforce leader Cara Silletto, MBA works with companies across the country to reduce unnecessary employee turnover by bridging generational gaps and making leaders more effective in their roles. Workforce Magazine named Cara a "Game Changer" and Recruiter.com named her in their "Top 10 Company Culture Experts to Watch." Cara is the author of the book Staying Power: Why Your Employees Leave & How to Keep Them Longer, and she was a 2018 Forty Under 40 Recipient in Louisville. Cara now resides back in her hometown of Jeffersonville, IN with her husband and her 5-year old son. Learn more about her team results at

July 2nd Meeting Recap:

Louisville-based National Center for Families Learning's Sharon Darling's presentation at the July 2nd Rotary meeting demonstrated the importance of family literacy, specifically its impact on fixing the education gap to end generational poverty. Sharon discussed why family literacy is the foundation needed to make real change, how the NCFL model is evolving with communities, and what that means for Louisville.
