Program—Dr. Photios Vassilyadi (Dr. Vazz) -
Southern Tennessee Regional Health System

Pictured above: President Heath Hill, Dr. Photios Vassilyadi and presenter Tina Holt. "Dr. Vazz" gave a brief overview of his Internal Medicine specialty and how it serves patients who have conditions that require more intensive treatment than the general care that is normally provided by Family Practitioners. Dr. Vazz is a Canadian citizen of Greek decent. He also discussed his first hand experience with treating Covid-19 patients during his residency at a Detroit hospital and emphasized that the effects of the virus are very real. He further stated that use of masks will not protect an individual from being infected, however use of masks will help to prevent someone who has already been infected from infecting others. Dr. Vazz stated his opinion that no individual, regardless of political persuasion, will defeat the virus, but that it will be defeated by the action of each of us as individuals.

Middle Tennessee District Fair Cancelled

With profound sadness and regret, the Lawrenceburg Rotary Club announces that the 2020 Middle Tennessee District Fair has been cancelled. The fair will return to Lawrenceburg Rotary Park in 2021.

The Lawrenceburg Rotary Club has been producing the Middle Tennessee District Fair since 1950. Over the past 70 years, we have grown the fair into one of the premier events in the state of Tennessee and have won many awards along the way. MTDF is an event made possible by the effort of many individuals and groups who participate in the fair, and the support of area residents who look forward to the fair every year.

Many circumstances surrounding the COVID-19 pandemic have made it impossible for us to produce the quality of fair in 2020 that all of us love and anticipate each year. Thus, it is with much sadness that the Lawrenceburg Rotary Club announces the cancellation of the 2020 Middle Tennessee District Fair. We regret having to make this decision knowing the impact it will have on our community; however, we will now begin to plan an even bigger and better fair for 2021.

The Middle Tennessee District Fair will return to Lawrenceburg Rotary Park on September 27, 2021. We hope to see you there!
