Program—The Shelter by Karen Niedergeses

Pictured : President Heath Hill, Karen Niedergeses - Director of The Shelter, and presenter Sissy Garner. Founded in 1986, the Shelter is a 100% community funded organization that serves victims of domestic abuse from Lawrence, Giles, Wayne, and Lewis Counties. Ms. Niedergeses joined the Shelter’s board shortly before the organization lost state funding approximately three years ago. She became its director and has made it a personal mission to serve the organizations traditional client base. Ms. Niedergeses described several cases where The Shelter was provided badly needed services for local families as well as one victim who had been fleeing domestic violence for nearly a year. Services include a place to stay, a clothing store on Geri Street, food vouchers, and counseling. The group occupies space at the old orphanage and works hand in hand with A Kids Place Child Advocacy Center.

October is Domestic Abuse Awareness month and is therefore the main fund raising month for the organization. In addition to direct support from local organizations, the Shelter sells yard signs and encourages individuals and groups to participate in “Serve Events” which might include cutting the lawn, repairing a toilet, or other activities needed to maintain physical operations.
