Program— Rotary District Governor
April Lieberman

District Governor April Lieberman visited our club via Zoom on Friday, October 30. She gave an emotional presentation on her personal journey which includes a head injury that ended her legal career and forced her to relearn many things that we all take for granted. She described how her membership in Rotary and encouragement from local and district leadership has been a major influence on her life. DG April encouraged the club to think of ways we can provide direct service to those affected by the pandemic and also how we can work to build peace in today's contentious environment.
