Program— Lawrenceburg Main Street by Marty Bradley

Pictured above—President Heath Hill, Marty Bradley, and Rotarian Teresa Frazier. Bradley was named Executive Director of the organization earlier this year and has been working with the private sector and local government to pursue the organization's four main objectives. These are "Design" to create a safe and attractive environment in the downtown area, "Economic Restructuring" working with businesses to build local trade, "Promotion" with events that draw people into the downtown area, and "Organization" which focuses on Mainstreet's ability to operate with continuity and efficiency. She also presented the Smart Start program that provides advice to individuals who may be wishing to start their own business. Bradley described many improvements that are currently taking place in downtown Lawrenceburg including projects like the sidewalk renovation that fall outside of the Mainstreet program. For Christmas, Mainstreet Lawrenceburg will be promoting a "Light Up Lawrenceburg" theme which will encourage downtown businesses to display Christmas lights and other decorations during the holidays. Mainstreet will be adding lights throughout the "Green".
