ANNUAL REPORT

2020-2021

WWW.NASHVILLEROTARY.ORG

As I rose to the podium on May 3, 2021, to ring the bell for my first in-person meeting as president, I reflected on the prior 10 months. I reflected on how Rotarians persevere. Things were different. There were fewer people allowed at our projects. Still, we worked on two Habitat houses, we packed backpacks at Second Harvest and we sorted medical supplies with Project Cure. We packed and distributed nearly 2,000 boxes of food to our Nashville neighbors over two weekends with our annual Feed the Need initiative. We persevered. We had great speakers join us from our city and across the country. Together, we learned from a broad spectrum of views. We toured the new Tennessee State Library and Archives and The National Museum of African American Music, albeit virtually. We had 35 new members join our club. We persevered.

I remembered how in October and November, as we were determining how to safely return to in-person meetings, the city experienced spikes in COVID-19 infections. I confess that by January, I was resigned to becoming the first virtual Rotary president. We persevered. Together as we look forward, we see a return to normal, knowing we met the challenges last year brought. We persevered.

I want to express my deepest gratitude to the members of the Board of Directors, the many committee chairs, and to the many volunteers who helped to lead the Rotary Club of Nashville. I want to thank Caroline Rossini, our operations manager and QuickBooks guru. To Olivia Leow: Thank You. Unless you serve as president, you do not know how much work goes into running a Rotary Club of our size. Whether managing the mundane or tackling the biggest challenges, Olivia conducted our club's daily business with aplomb. Finally, I want to thank each of you for your support and your many kind words. It's been an honor to serve you as the 106th president of the Rotary Club of Nashville. I was blessed I could stand on the shoulders of the many who served before me, and I look forward to helping lift Lauren Payne to success next year.

My Very Best,

Richard

Nashville Rotary virtual meeting-January 4, 2021

Rotarians are leaders who seek to better understand what is happening in our community. The program committee brought a diverse group of speakers to the Rotary podium this year. Rotary hosted 44 meetings. We were able to transition from virtual to hybrid meetings on May 3.

Speakers included Governor Bill Lee, Mayor John Cooper, MNPD Chief John Drake. We learned from education leaders, sports and tourism leaders and authors. Topics ranged from current affairs, lessons on racial justice and guests from around the country.

The Rotary Club of Nashville sponsors an Interact Club at LEAD Academy and a Rotaract Club at Fisk University. These clubs share Rotary's values and promote service above self for members.

FORUM FOR SERVICE

We create a forum for service.

Rotarians believe in Service above Self.

Backpacks with Second Harvest-Every month of the school year, Rotarians gather at Second Harvest Food Bank to pack 1,225 food packs to be distributed to children who experience food insecurity on the weekend.

Feed the Need- Over 250 Rotarians, along with their friends and family, gather for 4 service opportunities, packing and delivering food boxes to over 1,900 of our neighbors in need. This year looked a bit different with volunteers working in smaller groups to get boxes built, packed and delivered.

Habitat for Humanity- In October and May, we worked to build homes for our neighbors. In May, we worked on Nashville's first ever Habitat townhome community.

Project C.U.R.E.- Throughout the year, Rotarians sort donated medical supplies that will be shipped to medical providers in underserved countries.

Book 'em- Rotarians met virtually with an assigned classroom several times throughout the year, delivering a story and a free book for each child.

Inspiritus-On a beautiful morning in April, Rotarians worked to prepare healthy food gardens that produce healthy, free food for our neighbors in North Nashville.

Tree Planting- Our sustainability committee led the charge on planting over 300 trees at Percy Warner Park this spring.

Warner Elementary- Nashville Rotary began its relationship with Warner Elementary supporting teachers with catered lunches and gifts throughout the year.
