Marc Morial, who has been described as one of the few national leaders to possess “street smarts”, and “boardroom savvy”, is the current President and CEO of the National Urban League, the nation’s largest historic civil rights and urban advocacy organization.

He served as the highly successful and popular Mayor of New Orleans as well as the President of the U.S. Conference of Mayors. He previously was a Louisiana State Senator, and was a lawyer in New Orleans with an active, high profile practice.

He is a leading voice on the national stage in the battle for jobs, education, housing and voting rights equity.

A graduate of Georgetown University Law Center, and the University of Pennsylvania, he has been recognized as one of the 100 most influential Black Americans by Ebony Magazine, one of the top 50 Non Profit Leaders by the Non Profit Times, one of the 100 Most Influential Black Lawyers in America and he has also been inducted into the International Civil Rights Walk of Fame in Atlanta, GA.

WHAT DO YOU LOVE ABOUT ROTARY? WE ASKED, YOU SAID:

Harry Allen, Studio Bank
"Some organizations promote opportunities for relationship building. But I love that Rotary is about building better friendships. In Rotary, I've moved beyond networking with associates. I've made friends."

Kathy Parolini, Greenways of Nashville
"The camaraderie, intellectual stimulation and service to the community"

Jacky Akbari, Worthington Advisory
"True community"

Joyce Searcy, Belmont University
"Working with Rotarians to discover their gifts"

Maya Bugg, TN Charter School Center
"I love being inspired by leaders from across the city and learning about their work to make our city more equitable and prosperous for everyone."

Mark Thompson, Mercer
"Think globally, serve locally"

Honoree Corder, Honoree Enterprises
"The focus on community, philanthropy, and contribution. The relationships are incredible. The learning from fellow members and speakers. So many things!"

Bud Walters, Cromwell Group
"Good people with good intentions"

Richard Exton, President Manier & Exton
"Serving the needs of our community"

Evette White, Leadership Nashville
"I love the sense of community...sharing an experience and processing speaker content with peers is an invaluable way to start the week."

Kem Hinton, Tuck Hinton
"The wonderful fellowship of the very BEST people in Music City."
