VIRTUAL ROTARY-MARCH 15, 2021: NASHVILLE'S PANDEMIC RESPONSE

United Way of Greater Nashville has partnered with Need Link, and other local organizations, to assist Nashvillians affected economically by COVID-19. The process has been managed by United Way from day one and with the goal of saving many of our neighbors from eviction—and allowing them to remain in Nashville.

About our speakers:

Brian was named President & CEO of United Way of Greater Nashville in December of 2017. Since 2018, United Way of Greater Nashville has been one of the fastest growing United Way's in the United States. The Nashville Business Journal named Brian to its "Most Admired" and "Power 100" lists in 2020.

Lee Anne Wills serves as CEO of NeedLink Nashville, our city's historic crisis financial assistance nonprofit organization, originally known as Big Brothers of Nashville which began in 1912. Lee Anne is a native Nashvillian who graduated from Harpeth Hall and The University of Alabama. Prior to joining NeedLink Nashville, Lee Anne worked in two forms of development.
