VIRTUAL ROTARY-MAY 10, 2021: CONGRESSMAN JIM COOPER

Congressman Jim Cooper was born and raised in Tennessee and lives in Nashville. His wife of nearly 36 years, Martha, passed away February 4, 2021. They have three children and one grandchild. He represents Tennessee's 5th Congressional district, which consist of Nashville and Dickson and Cheatham counties. He is chairman of the Strategic Forces Subcommittee that oversees the nation's nuclear installations and satellites and a member of the Committee on Oversight and Reform, Committee on Budget, and the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence. A lawyer by training, he also taught health policy at Vanderbilt University's business school for two decades and is a recognized budget expert. A New York Times columnist called him "the House's conscience, a lonely voice for civility in this ugly era" and a "tart-tongued moderate" who "seeks bipartisanship on fiscal matters and other issues in a polarized political climate." USA Today named him one of the "Brave 38" of a "tiny band of heroes" in Congress for his work on a bipartisan budget plan. He is a strong advocate of voting rights. In recent years, he has worked to increase voter registration in Tennessee, a state that's consistently ranked last in voter participation.

UPDATE ON ROTARY MEETINGS

We are excited to announce that Nashville Rotary will begin a hybrid meeting format on Monday, May 3. The hybrid meeting format will allow for an opportunity to attend in person at the Wildhorse Saloon or virtually through a Zoom livestream. Initially, we will allow up to 100 people to attend in person. Should it become unsafe to continue the in-person option, we will revert to a virtual-only meeting format.

The in-person meeting RSVP will open each Monday at 3 p.m. and end by Thursday at 9 a.m. that week. The RSVP for Monday, May 3 will open on Monday, April 26 at 3 p.m. You will receive an email with a link to the RSVP. If space allows, we will have an opportunity for members to bring prospective members to the in-person meeting.

No RSVP is necessary to attend the virtual meeting.

New to Rotary?

Join us for the next virtual Member Orientation on May 25 at 8:30 a.m.
