

Rotary Meeting: Monday, September 23, 2019

Speaker: Robert Huffman, District Governor
Rotary District 6760

Robert “Bob” Huffman serves as Rotary District 6760’s District Governor. Huffman joined Rotary in 2008 and is a member of the Clarksville-Sunrise Rotary Club, a multi-level Paul Harris Fellow and Paul Harris Society Member.

Best known for his Chairmanship as the District 6760 Youth Services and Rotary Youth Leadership

Awards program. As a member of the RYLA Family (RYFAM) since 2009, he has impacted hundreds of middle Tennessee youth in a five-day, four-night high intensity leadership program. Over the years he has mentored our RYLA staff members, many that have gone on to serve Rotary in a number of capacities around the world.

ROTARY RECAP

Service Spotlight

We had a great volunteer turn out on Friday, September 13 for medical supply sorting at Project C.U.R.E. Project C.U.R.E. processes donated medical supplies and sends to hospitals in underserved parts of the world. Rotarian Raymond White received Rotary International's Service Above Self Award for his involvement in this project.

Monday, September 16: Jeff Lyash, CEO of the Tennessee Valley Authority presented at Rotary as we officially welcomed new members Gerald McCormick and Robin Satyshur.
