From payroll to programming, the women who lead Nashville's TV stations are responsible for nearly every aspect of their station's operation. On the flip side, they're accountable to the thousands of viewers who tune in, click to, or stream their product 24-7. In a panel discussion led by Rotarian and former NewsChannel5 reporter/anchor Lydia Lenker, we'll get an inside look at the TV industry and the daily challenges of life at the helm.

ROTARY RECAP

Service Spotlight

Backpacks at Second Harvest

Thirty Rotarians and friends packed 1,225 food packs to be given to hungry kids in our community. Join us on the third Friday of each month at Second Harvest.

Fall Habitat Build

On Wednesday, September 25, 21 Rotarians and friends spent the day siding and insulating a Habitat home. We were delighted to get to work alongside the homeowner, Doenisha!

We are grateful to our recent speaker, Jeff Lyash, President & CEO of the Tennessee Valley Authority. Jeff ended his presentation with a $5,000 gift to the Nashville Rotary Service Trust's Footprint Fund.
