Speaker: Norah Buikstra, The State of Retail

Norah is a Kansas native, and has lived in Chicago, Miami, and now Nashville since 2001. She is a graduate of Kansas University School of Architecture, and she student taught architectural studio when she began graduate school at the Illinois Institute of Technology Chicago. Through her first job in a Chicago firm, she consulted to a retail developer for drawing review and construction management, specializing in large expansion projects. She fell in love with the business of retail and never looked back. Today, Norah is the General Manager for the Mall at Green Hills and has been an essential part of the overall evolution of the Mall at Green Hills to the luxury center that it is today.
