Weekly Update from the Rotary Club of Nashville

Monday, August 30: Phil Ponder

Next Monday, Phil Ponder will discuss his passion for his iconic art, as he presents a showcase of his works and shares his thoughts on the ever-evolving Nashville landscape. His presentation to the Rotary Club of Nashville comes as he prepares to release a career retrospective book and new print of the Nashville skyline. Last Week at Rotary

Jenn Adams and Mats Bjoerkman shared about their experience launching August Bioservices and building a team in unprecedented times. Click here to watch the meeting.

Sign Up To Serve

Book'em

As a Book'em volunteer, you will visit your assigned classroom just five times during the school year. You will read a story and engage with the children before you allow each student to pick a book to keep. There will be a volunteer training on Monday, September 13, immediately following Rotary. Click here to sign up as a Book'em volunteer.

Habitat for Humanity

Sign ups for the Rotary Fall Habitat Build are live! We will work to build Habitat Nashville's first townhome community on Friday, September 24. Space is limited. Sign up today! Click here to sign up.

Backpacks at Second Harvest

Thank you to the volunteers who came out last Friday to pack 1,106 meals!

Once a month, Rotarians gather to pack food to be included in backpacks of students who experience food insecurity over the weekend. We will be back at Second Harvest on September 17. Click here to sign up.
