VIRTUAL ROTARY-NOVEMBER 23, 2020: CLAY STAUFFER, NINE LIFE LESSONS FROM COVID

Dr. Clay Stauffer is a fourth generation Disciples minister, following in the footsteps of his father, grandfather, and great-grandfather. He was installed as Senior Minister of Woodmont on October 21, 2007 at the age of 27, the youngest minister in Woodmont's history to ever hold that position. Clay writes regularly for the Faith and Values section of The Tennessean, and does some church consulting and leadership training on the side. He is also an Adjunct Professor at Vanderbilt University focusing his research on morality, character, and political polarization. His most recent book, Spiritual Reflections on Faith, Values, & Culture, addresses the deeper issues that matter most in life: faith, wisdom, values, spirituality, relationships, connection, and self-reflection. He is also the author of Preaching Politics: Proclaiming Jesus in an Age of Money, Power, and Partisanship, published in 2016 by Chalice Press. He is a trained life coach through The John Maxwell Team. Clay has also served on many non-profit boards including the Nashville Food Project, Faith Family Medical Clinic, Disciples Divinity House at Vanderbilt, Phoenix Club of Nashville, Downtown Rotary Club, The Blake McMeans Foundation, and Woodmont Christian Preschool.

FEED THE NEED

Feed the Need is our annual signature service project. Each year, we work to pack food boxes and deliver them to nearly 2,000 of our neighbors in need. This year will look a bit different, but our mission remains the same. Explore the volunteer opportunities below and sign up as you are able.

Friday, December 4: Box Building

15 volunteers needed to assemble boxes ahead of packing day.
