Four Way Test

1944 : The Nazi Gestapo captures 15-year-old Jewish diarist Anne Frank and her family in a sealed-off area of an Amsterdam warehouse.

1950 : Both Snyder and Abilene in Texas had a total of six polio cases involving children recently, which indicates an upswing in this disease. One child was so badly affected that she had to be on a respirator.

1964 : Three civil rights workers (Michael Schwerner, Andrew Goodman and James Chaney) were found buried in a partially constructed dam near Philadelphia, Mississippi. After disappearing more than a month before, police are investigating if members of the Ku Klux Klan are responsible.

1967 : The world's nuclear fears were aroused when China exploded an H-bomb on 17 Jun 1966, under the presidency of Mao Tse-tung. An editorial a year later in The Ada Evening News focused on fear mongering about nuclear war and remembered the horrors of Nagasaki and Hiroshima 22 years before the Chinese got the bomb.
