Service Opportunity: Mentors Needed for BCHS Seniors

Friday, November 27, 2020

TN Achieves is looking for mentors to work with this year's high school seniors enrolled in the TN Promise Scholarship program. Fifty mentors are still needed to work the Bradley Central High School seniors. Please consider volunteering as a mentor or forwarding this to someone else that would make a great mentor.

Mentors spend just one hour per month supporting students as they transition from high school through their first semester of college. Many TN Promise students will be the first person in their family to go to college, and need a little extra encouragement!

Mentors will serve their students virtually in the coming year using tnAchieves CONNECT. tnAchieves CONNECT is a virtual mentoring platform that allows mentors and students to work together from home and on their own schedule. The platform offers a variety of communication tools to make connecting with students more efficient and personal. tnAchieves CONNECT will help to ensure mentors and students will continue to build meaningful, impactful relationships in the year to come.

The deadline to register is this Friday, December 4. If you are interested in applying to be a mentor, you can visit: www.tnachieves.org/mentors/apply.

Results from last week's poll: Have you lived anywhere less than a year as an adult?

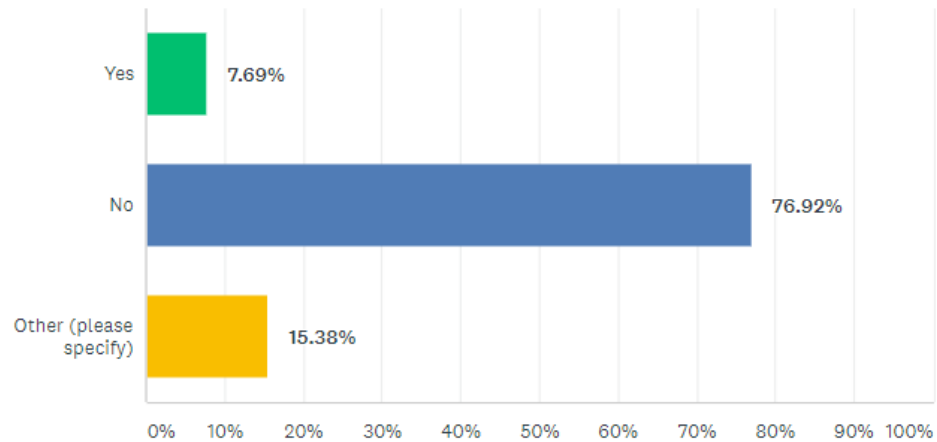

Friday, November 20, 2020

At the November 10, 2020 meeting Shawna Staup told us that their long-term management keeps families in homes beyond six months to ensure they have a long-term solution. What's the shortest amount of time you have lived anywhere in your adult life?

The majority of respondents haven't experienced the stress of moving frequently. The "other" response said this: "Work transfers often as short as three months"

For the bonus question we asked: Have you ever lived in a hotel?

The "other" responses said: "Housesitting" and "Work assignments in foreign countries. Hotel was permanent residency."

For this week's poll tell us: Have you ever been a patient at Siskin?

Rotarians Find Ways to Cope During the Pandemic

Throughout the pandemic Rotarians are discovering ways to connect, cope, and care for each other and people in the communities they serve.

Social distancing, self-quarantines, and lockdowns, all of which have been necessary to reduce the spread of COVID-19, help keep us safe but also isolate us, creating feelings of loneliness and anxiety.

Click HERE to read about how Rotary clubs are rising to the challenge to mitigate these negative effects, both in their clubs and beyond. Along the way, members are discovering new ways to serve.

The Farragut Club Has Big Plans for Christmas

Even though the Farragut Club is not meeting in person now, these are busy and exciting times for the Club. Three major projects are being planned around the Christmas and making the holidays a very special time for many special people in our community: Christmas gifts for kids at East Tennessee Children's Hospital (ETCH), Angel Tree gifts for the Boys & Girls Club of the Tennessee Valley, and Salvation Army Red Kettle Bell Ringing

Children's Hospital Christmas Project aims to help the children at ETCH have a fun Christmas with toys that the club donates. According to Scott Bertini, Service Projects Chair, "There are 152 beds at ETCH and, though every bed may not be filled, but our stretch goal is 152 toys."

They plan to deliver the toys in handmade Christmas bags. The Hardin Valley Academy Interact Club on Monday will start sewing 152 bags for toys. They also are working on fabric donations this week, and a web-savvy student in the club may create a virtual tree for gifts that can be sent to Scott's email address, Leah Berry, HVA Interact Club advisor. They are really excited about the project!

Past President Jonathan Johnson is again heading up the Angel Tree for Club Boys & Girls Club of the Tennessee Valley. The gifts given by Rotarians will help the Boys & Girls Club children have a holiday full of joy and cheer.

The Salvation Army Red Kettle project is chaired by Mike Singletary. Club members will work in two-hour shifts on two December Saturdays. They will ring at the main entrance of Kroger's in Farragut. Our service will be especially important this season because of the economic hard times suffered by many people during the pandemic, Mike says.
