Rotary Notes July 24, 2019

Pat Postma

Our guests today Cindy Jeffers of the Sunset Club and her guest Joan Clayton. Terresa Brittain was a guest and our speaker today.

Emily Jernigan announced that there would be a special Irish Pub trivia event at the Grove Theater on September 28. Proceeds from the event will go toward completing the Westcott wall in front of the Grove. Our club has three tables of 6 to fill up so we need all you trivia wizards to join a table.

IF you had a Pack the Park for Polio ticket, that event was canceled because of rain. Your ticket will be good when the new date is set.

We are still offering a special deal to support a student for two semesters of Career Pathways internship for the special price $1200. Make your check payable to the ORBRC Foundation & write Career Pathways on the memo line.

Our Roster has a new gimmick. If it is your birthday you have to spin the wheel to see how much you fine is. Tony Wright had to pay $2 but Charles Crowe got off free!

Ellen Smith gave her Happy Dollars for an upcoming trip to Ghana with her husband. Miriam Wildgubber was happy that their Rotary Exchange student had received his visa and is arriving next week. Pat Postma was happy because one of our Flatwater Festival storytellers described ours as ◆one of the premier storytelling events in the country.◆

Our program this week was a very enlightening discussion with Teresa Brittain about adult literacy in Anderson County. State support for adult education has changed in nature over the years and adult literacy is no longer provided for. Friends of Literacy in Knox County has stepped in to serve Sevier

County and Anderson County. About 11% of the adults in Anderson are functionally illiterate. The reading programs are free to those who use it. We need volunteers to teach reading here and it is a great opportunity for Rotarians to help their community. Teresa is holding a training workshop next Tuesday, July 30 at 5:30 PM at the Unitarian Church. Please consider being a part of this important new initiative for our county.

Career Pathways Donation Opportunity

How to Donate to Career Pathways

1. Sponsor One Student Work Term for $1200 and get an Option to Sponsor a Second Work Term for $325!!

The ORBRC Foundation has generously established a matching donation challenge.

The Foundation will provide funding of $325 for each of six student work terms, provided there is a $325 match from an ORBRC member.

This fall we will be submitting a District 6780 Grant request to match that total of $650 with $550 from the District, to arrive at $1200 for each of the six student work terms.

The first 6 ORBRC members who contribute $1200 now will be placed on a list for an option to pay $325 later this year, to be matched with $875 after we lock down a District 6780 Grant. This is an opportunity to write a check now for $1200 and later opt to fully sponsor one student's Career Pathways two work term experiences for only an additional $325.

Let's Pack the Park for Polio

IMPORTANT NOTICE: Due to the rainout of the July 22nd Smokies game, we have rescheduled the game for Monday, August 26th. We hope you can attend as we will again "Pack the Park" for Polio Eradication.

Make your plans to attend the game between the Tennessee Smokies and the Birmingham Barons as Rotarians Pack the Park to crush polio. The game begins at 7:00 p.m. at the Smokies Stadium in Kodak. Come a bit earlier and see District Governor, Greg Maciolek, throw out the first pitch.

Ticket vouchers for the game are $12 each, and $5.50 of that amount will go to the fight to end polio. With the match from the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation, that's $16.50. Each voucher comes with a $6 stadium credit and lots of fun! It's Dollar Dog Night, so you could gorge on six hot dogs with your stadium credit!

If you cannot attend the game on August 26th, your ticket voucher (but not the stadium credit) is good for any remaining regular season home game for the remainder of the season. Vouchers will be exchanged for tickets at the special Rotary table near the stadium ticket office. For vouchers contact John Downs at latigo57@yahoo.com. Please bring in your check for $6.50/ticket sold and make it out to the Tennessee Smokies.
