Labor Day: No Meeting

Rotary Club of Oak Ridge Sunset Cleans Rutgers Avenue

The Oak Ridge Sunset Club President Becky Dodson, along with the club's Board, have decided to conduct a service project each month in the 2020-21 Rotary year. In July the club helped Aid to Distressed Families of Appalachia (ADFAC) procure and distribute school supplies to students in Anderson County. This is the 11th year the club has participated in this project.

On August 2 club members picked up trash on Rutgers Avenue from Illinois Avenue to the Oak Ridge Turnpike. Pictured are Addison Koella (left) and project team leader

Charles Darling (right). This is the seventh year Darling had managed the effort. He and other club members clean up Rutgers Avenue several times each year.
