Weekly Song - Take Me Out to the Ball Game

"Take Me Out to the Ball Game" is a 1908 Tin Pan Alley song by Jack Norworth and Albert Von Tilzer which has become the unofficial anthem of North American baseball, although neither of its authors had attended a game prior to writing the song. We'll sing the chorus used during the 7th inning stretch.

Take me out to the ball game,
Take me out with the crowd;
Buy me some peanuts
and Cracker Jack,
I don't care if I never get back.

Let me root, root, root
for the home team,
If they don't win, it's a shame.

For it's one, two, three strikes,
you're out,
At the old ball game.

You can listen to the WHOLE song here: Take Me Out to the Ball Game There are 2 verses that accompany the chorus... It's quite a hoot. Jack Norworth, while riding a subway train, was inspired by a sign that said "Baseball Today ♦ Polo Grounds". In the song, Katie's beau calls to ask her out to see a show. She accepts the date, but only if her date will take her out to the baseball game.

The words were set to music by Albert Von Tilzer. (Norworth and Von Tilzer finally saw their first Major League Baseball games 32 and 20 years later, respectively.) The song was first sung by Norworth's then-wife Nora Bayes and popularized by many other vaudeville acts. It was played at a ballpark for the first known time in 1934, at a high-school game in Los Angeles; it was played later that year during the fourth game of the 1934 World Series.

Norworth wrote an alternative version of the song in 1927. (Norworth and Bayes were famous for writing and performing such hits as "Shine On, Harvest Moon".) With the sale of so many records, sheet music, and piano rolls, the song became one of the most popular hits of 1908. The Haydn Quartet singing group, led by popular tenor Harry MacDonough, recorded a successful version on Victor Records.

The most famous recording of the song was credited to "Billy Murray and the Haydn Quartet", even though Murray did not sing on it. The confusion, nonetheless, is so pervasive that, when "Take Me Out to the Ball Game" was selected by the National Endowment for the Arts and the Recording Industry Association of America as one of the 365 top "Songs of the Century", the song was credited to Billy Murray, implying his recording of it as having received the most votes among songs from the first decade. The first recorded version was by Edward Meeker. Meeker's recording was selected by the Library of Congress as a 2010 addition to the National Recording Registry, which selects recordings annually that are "culturally, historically, or aesthetically significant".

President's Message 7/12/19

By Ann C. Wade on Saturday, July 6, 2019

President's Message

Congratulations, New Tampa Rotarians!

You have just donated $40,032 to Polio Plus!

Our largest Donation EVER!

The Rotary Foundation is allowing clubs, for this year only, to contribute DDF funds to the Polio Plus project. Because of our large amount of donations to the Rotary Foundation 3 years ago, the Rotary Foundation is returning $6,122 to our club this year. Your new Board of Directors has voted to donate the entire amount to Polio Plus. These funds will be matched by the Rotary International World Fund and matched again times two by the Gates Foundation. In addition, $1100 was donated to Polio Plus from our Fundraiser Contributions. This amount is matched 2:1 by the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation. Thus, our total contribution to Polio Plus is $40,032! This is the largest contribution in our club history for Polio Plus! Since I am a Polio Survivor this donation is making my Presidential year begin in a monumental way!

I am so proud to be your President and look forward to even greater achievements in the year ahead!

Service Projects Schedule

By Dennis Loomis

Meals on Wheels

Our Club's Meals on Wheels Committee would like to make you aware of this service opportunity. One of RCNT's on-going service projects is its sponsorship of the NT1 and NT2 routes each Monday for Meals on Wheels.

We have recently had a team-member resign. The remaining team members are sufficient to cover the routes, however I would like to see if we could get one RCNT member who would like to join our team as either a substitute or full-time team member for the September through December time period. The person could then decide if they want to stay on the team starting in January as either a sub or full-time person.

Team members are normally scheduled for seven or eight routes per year and given the opportunity for input into the schedule. If something comes up, team members are good about trading and I am normally available to cover if no one else can.

Both of our routes are in the Tampa Palms or New Tampa regions (Hillsborough County); take about 90 minutes to complete; and start at the Lutheran Church in Tampa Palms at 1130 AM and end there at about 1 pm.

Anyone who may wish to consider this service opportunity could ride with one of our volunteers to learn the procedures and see if this would be something they would like to do. In order to become a volunteer, one must undergo a free background check with Meals on Wheels and attend an orientation session which typically lasts 60 to 90 minutes. They also must ride with either myself or one of our other volunteers before doing their own route.

Please contact Dennis Loomis, DennisLoomis1951@gmail.com, if you would like to volunteer.
