President's Message

Many Hands Make Light Work

◆ Many Hands make Light Work ◆ is an old adage but our wonderful Rotary Club shows this to be true every day.

As we go into the second month of this Rotary year, I am pleased to announce that all committees have been appointed and are functioning! One of my goals was to have every member on a committee and, with my Senior Director Tom's help, we have achieved that goal!

We have 33 committees working under 7 Directors. The Directors are Al Allen (Club Administration), Matt Palmer (Public Relations), Bob Thompson (Sergeant-at-arms), Connie Bladon (Club Foundation), Karen Tillman-Goslin (Membership), Peter Gambacorta (Club Fundraising), and Brian Levinson (Club Service). I have emailed a copy of all the committees to all members.

Our club members are awesome! Many have volunteered to serve on more than one committee and all our members are willing to volunteer to help with all club functions! I believe that this year will truly be a year of doing Service Above Self.

Speaker, Friday August 2nd: S4TL: Kathleen Novak, Jennifer DiCecco, and Nicholas DiCecco

Seminar for Tomorrows Leaders (S4TL)

Our own Kathleen Novak who volunteered for the week at S4TL will reflect on another successful year and answer questions.

Jennifer DiCecco attended as a "club representative" at a rap-session this year, and Nicholas DiCecco volunteered as a team leader/counselor (red-shirt) for the week. Both will join Kathleen for the informal presentation.

A little background...

S4TL (Seminar for Tomorrow's Leaders) is a powerful leadership training program for inbound high school seniors. It is organized annually by a board of directors of Rotarian senior staff from Districts 6890, 6950 and 6960 in mid-Florida. This award-winning program is capable of transforming the lives of these young leaders. Each Rotary club in the three districts may sponsor a delegate to the sessions. More than 150 delegates participate every year.

One of the most unique features of the S4TL program is that delegates, based on their demonstrated leadership, may be invited back to assume progressively more responsible duties. Ultimately, much of the program is driven by student leadership that have developed through the S4TL experience.

Another interesting element is the rap sessions where the leaders of tomorrow are divided into groups of 16-18 delegates. They meet with Rotarians to discuss topics of interest to them. No holds are barred, and both groups learn from one another.

Beginning on Fathers Day each year, Rotarians also transport delegates to and from the week-long event held at Florida Southern College in Lakeland.

Introducing Lisa Schollenberger

My name is Lisa Schollenberger. I am originally from Western Pennsylvania and graduated from Chatham College with a degree in International Business with German. I met my husband while in college and worked for a few years after college in the Import/Export field, but decided to stay home with our two boys when my husband's job had us relocating every three years. After living in Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Memphis, Dallas, Charlotte and Northern New Jersey, we settled here in Tampa. When my husband passed away a few years ago, I was a co-chair of the New Tampa YMCA Board so going to work full-time for the Y was an easy transition. I have been a director at the East Pasco Y, the South Tampa Y, the North Brandon Y and now here at my home Y, New Tampa. I have lived in Tampa Palms for 12 years and have two sons, Jordan and Jared. Jordan graduated from Georgia Tech and is an engineering consultant in Washington D.C. and Jared will be a Junior at the University of Florida this fall. In my free time, I love to read.
