Rob joined the SBDC in 2015 as a business consultant in the Albany office. Previously, he worked for multiple large corporations and brings with him a rich background of leadership experiences ranging from manufacturing, sales and distribution to hospitality, culinary and operations management. He is recognized as a leader that loves to grow business and people to help them reach their full potential.

These previous experiences have equipped Rob with the ability to educate clients through a multitude of challenges and strategic changes needed in today's marketplace. His areas of expertise include marketing, retail strategy, financial forecasting, human resources and strategic planning. One of Rob's major forte's is the ability to help educate leaders and teams "connect the dots" using innovation and communication to achieve results

Lisa Farris with Henry's Angels

Henry's Angels is a nonprofit organization established Christmas of 2017 in memory of Henry William Farris. He was the newborn son of Zac and Sarah Farris. Henry passed away soon after he was born on August 12, 2017 and this nonprofit was born. Henry's Angels raises

Kids Helping Kids Ending Hunger at Merry Acres

Helping Hands Service Project every Friday 2pm at Merry Acres Middle School

Pack the leftover food for the kids to take home over the weekend.

1. Go to 1601 Florence Ave. and into the main office. You will be required to wear a mask.
2. Check in and go to the Helping Hands room (its at the end of the big hallway on the left).
3. Pack items as per instructions.

This will take approximately 30 minutes total

If you can't make it to your scheduled volunteer time, please call someone to take your place.
