Rob Martin with the Small Business Development Center

Rob Martin, Business Consultant with the University of Georgia Small Business Development Center spoke to the Dougherty County Rotary Club on October 12, 2021. The SBDC offers business consulting to Georgia business owners and entrepreneurs at no direct cost. The goal is to grow stronger, more successful Georgia businesses. They offer a wide range of services including such as Understanding credit requirements and lending expectations, Access to market research analysis, Business plan assistance, Research on local, state and federal regulator requirements, Marketing assistance and Human resource planning just to name a few.

Dean Fabrizio

Coach Dean Fabrizio took over the Lee County High School Football team 12 years ago. They were coming off a 0-10 Varsity season and was winless on all levels. In its 40 year football history, Lee County had only had 5 winning season prior to Coach Fabrizio. Come listen, Tuesday, October 19, 2021 and find out how Fabrizio and his team have grown the Lee County football program to one of the most successful in Georgia.
