Dr. Pauline E. Wallner

Dr. Pauline E. Wallner works as a strategic performance management consultant with action learning, project management, facilitating, motivational speaking, and training experience. She has worked with multinational organizations, groups, and teams from and on several continents. Clients and students often describe her as culturally adept, agile, flexible, adaptable, and resilient. These traits have had profound impacts on intra-group and inter group relationships. She started a consulting practice in 1999, working with commercial, government, and non-profit organizations in the United States, UK, EU, Canada, and the Caribbean. Since 2005, she has visited Asian countries more than thirty times, working with medium and large organizations in China, South Korea, Japan, Thailand, Indonesia, and Singapore. She designed, developed, enhanced, and facilitated executive leadership development programs with participants from several domain expertise and industries. Dr. Wallner expanded her knowledge in global markets, collaborating with senior human resource officers, sales executives, project managers, engineers, information technology, senior executives, and decision-makers. Dr. Wallner is the author of the Rising Stronger Series.

Golf Tournament Kickoff

President Irvine arrived early Monday October 11 at the start of this year's FODAC Golf Tournament. President Irvine had breakfast with several participants before the tournament kicked off. This year's tournament has already seen a huge participation.

Special visit

We were delighted to host our very own District Governor Mary Ligon last Tuesday October 5th, 2021.

We are recognizing Gender Based Violence against Young Girls World Wide this past week end

Dear Fellow Rotarians,

I just spent the last two hours or so watching, listening, and mentally participating in this marvelous and intellectually stimulating and educational presentation from Nepal. The more I submit myself to the Rotary experience, the better I become as a human being, and as an informed person. The young women presenters were very impressive. Their work was as incisive and cogent as that of many graduate students that I have been exposed to. Our Tom Smith was very sound and comprehensive, and I wrote down all of the points he made. Tom is a veritable font of information and practical experiences, and I intend to ensure that our Rotary Club receive adequate opportunities to be exposed to his teaching and energy. There is much that our Club can do here, and we must. Thanks Carol for your consistent kicking and prodding of your Club into a wider awareness. It surprised me that at the end you were so overwhelmed that you were at a loss for words.
