Charles and Alla Campbell

Charles Campbell grew up in Brunswick, GA. He earned an Industrial Engineering Degree from Georgia Tech and a Master of Business Administration Degree from Harvard Business School. He served in the U.S. Navy during the Vietnam War. Charles retired in 2006.

Alla Traber Campbell grew up in Madison, GA, and she earned a Bachelor of Science Degree from Tift College and a Master of Science Degree in Nursing from University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill. They moved to the Lake Country in 2006.

Charles is a former Rotarian in the Downtown Birmingham Rotary Club, and both Charles and Alla are Paul Harris Fellows.

The couple has traveled the world extensively. Their first major trip was in 1998 and included a cruise of the east coast of Africa from Cape Town to Kenya and a safari in Kenya. While they both went together on at least one trip a year, Alla also would travel with friends while Charles was working. In fact, Alla and her two daughters spent 60 days backpacking through Southeast Asia.

Over the years, the number of countries they visited grew and grew. About ten years ago, the quest began to visit all 193 United Nations countries. Charles has been to 172 and Alla 193. The most recent United Nations country they visited was Libya.

At our Rotary meeting this week Charles and Alla will discuss their unique and most interesting travels.
