SERVE TO CHANGE LIVES

President's Notes - October 12th

By Jack Payne
Fellow Lake Chatuge Rotarians,

We had a nice turnout in the driving rain last Tuesday, counting four or five Zoomers, and as we prepare to move back to our traditional meeting place at Brasstown Resort on Tuesday October 19th, I look forward to seeing a full pavilion this week.

Our next and final meeting at the Garden will feature Dan Hudgins, a Consultant for the Small Business Development Center at UGA. Dan has extensive financial management experience with both private and public businesses which he now applies at SBDC. As we continue to explore ways in which the solid business experience among our club members can benefit our local economy, Dan's presentation should be timely. Read More

TRF - We are Part of Something Bigger

By John Clayton Scott

As Lake Chatuge Rotarians we are truly special. We are the core of our community. We enjoy the fellowship of others who are solid citizens of the real America who help our neighbors and feel the responsibility of bettering our community and the world.

And we, to the last one of us, love our Lake Chatuge and mountain community and the rural values our community stands for.
