Birthdays

Meet Cheryl!

Born and raised in Texas until I was able to leave. I was schooled in Philadelphia. Came from a family of people who cooked because they could, including my father and uncle....Bar B Q masters. Love all things BBQ.

After deciding law school was not really a calling I returned to my first passion food. The rest is history.

I worked in Philadelphia for about 25 years. I met my husband through the business. We even worked together for a while. He had an injury and we decided to go to Italy. Took a while for me to exit the business but in august of 2000 after a long debriefing I was ready to go. We packed our house and 2 cats and left on a great adventure.

I never looked back.

I came in contact with an American woman. Her partner was Italian. He was on the edge of creating something here in Abruzzo for the fledgling tourist industry. His father bought a castello in the little town of Carunchio. From there Abruzzo Cibus was born.

That was over 15 years ago. It was a brilliant concept. I re-invented myself. Up until this year I have been teaching Abruzzese cooking to mostly American tourists. It was a great match. I have become very integrated into the culture; speak the language...for better or worse. This is my place. Not sure what the future holds right now. The virus is in charge. I am still able to practice my trade. I make American things for people here periodically. If not for pay ...barter, this is more interesting: A chicken,
