June 28th, 2021: Presidential Transition

By Chris Taylor Sunday, June 27, 2021

This Monday will be Jay's last meeting as your Club's President and he will honor his 2020-2021 Board Members for their outstanding work, along with our general Membership, which resulted in The Classic City Rotary Club of Athens being awarded as a Rotary Gold Club.

Jay will then turn over the Club gavel to Blair symbolizing his start as President for the 2021-2022 Rotary year. Blair will then introduce his incoming Board and provide the Membership with an overview of his upcoming Rotary year.

Here is the Zoom link for the Monday June 28th Club Meeting @ Noon.
Meeting ID: 816 3098 1162
Passcode: Classic

Previous Speaker: Beth Bryant

By Chris Taylor Sunday, June 27, 2021

The Members of The Classic City Rotary Club of Athens were extremely honored to have had Beth Bryant, the Director of the Cultural Foundation at The Classic Center, along with Stephanie VanDyck and Jo Sullivan as our Guest Speakers last Monday June 21st. They advised us of the many great cultural activities and events that are planned for the 2021-2022 season at The Classic Center. This is going to be an exciting year in Athens. Thank you, Beth, Stephanie, and Jo. Please join us again for some wonderful fellowship and a delicious lunch!

Beth Bryant attended the University of Georgia and received her degree in Public Relations through the Grady School of Journalism in 2014. Beth began working at The Classic Center in 2012 as part-time event and ticketing support. She also assisted with The Classic Center's workforce development program, the Hospitality Careers Academy.

Beth then went on to manage the ticketing office while raising membership funds for The Classic Center Cultural Foundation. In 2018, Beth shifted fully to The Classic Center Cultural Foundation team as the Development Manager and is now the Director of the Cultural Foundation. Beth lives in Athens with her husband and two pointers, Mavis and Maggie.
