fourth-place finish in the SEC standings after being picked ninth in the conference's preseason poll. The Lady Bulldogs advanced to the SEC tournament championship game for the first time since 2004 and earned their highest NCAA tournament seeding since 2007. In her six years leading the program, she has compiled a 119-65 record. Her success is not solely what happens on the court. She has been heavily involved in the Athens community, creating the award-winning Beyond Basketball a meeting place for women in Athens to discuss happenings and issues in and around the area. Under her guidance, two Georgia student-athletes Marjorie Butler and Haley Clark have earned the SEC Scholar Athlete of the Year Award, while six (Shacobia Barbee, Tiaria Griffin, Pachis Roberts, Caliya Robinson, Mackenzie Engram and Jenna Staiti) have garnered All-SEC honors

Service Opportunity - Wild Rumpus Parade

Looking for a few volunteers who are ready to be part of the fun at the Wild Rumpus parade on Sat., Oct. 30th. Our club is one of the sponsors of this year's event. We will need about 3 people to set up signs on stages announcing our support for this popular event and another 6-7 members to pass out Rotary information to parade attendees and observers. Proceeds from this event will support Community and Chess and their efforts to teach chess and provide mentoring to youth. Dressing up is suggested though not required. More information about what time to report for volunteering will be forthcoming. The actual parade starts at 8 pm. To volunteer, contact Marilyn Appleby at 706-202-1506 or 97.ml.appleby@gmail.com.

Ready to Volunteer for Some Service Projects?

Sat., October 23 ♦ United Way Day of Caring- Meet at Advantage Behavioral Health, 240 Mitchell Bridge Rd. at 9 a.m. Bring wheel barrows, rakes, shovels, work gloves, and trash bags to help beautify the grounds.

Fri., November 19 ♦ Our Daily Bread Lunch at First Baptist Church. Club members will make boxed lunches and pass them out to participants. The majority of individuals served at Our Daily Bread are the working poor and this meal assists them greatly. Contact Jay Milner for more info on volunteer shifts and to let him know you can help.

Save the Date!
