Classics In The Country Car Show Is Tomorrow Saturday, September 25th

By Dean Bright on Friday, September 24, 2021

John Wagner did an exceptional job in ordering the weatehr for tomorrow and we hope to see a big nmbur of Rotarians at the show. If you signed up to help them we hope you will stay for a free lunch as small way to say a big thank you for helping. This years car show has shaped up to be our biggest and best ever!!!!

See you tomorrow

Tuesday, September 28th Guest Speaker Is Tiffany Hines Owner of Global Escapes

By Dean Bright on Friday, September 24, 2021

Tiffany Hines presentation titled Hindsight is 2020 will include update on what travel looks like currently, what destinations are open, new restrictions but mostly inspiration of destinations to visit in the coming years.

BIO:

As President & CEO, Tiffany Hines is the 2nd generation of female leadership for Global Escapes, a travel consulting company that has been headquartered in Athens, GA, for more than 33 years. After taking over the reins from her mother and founder, Tiffany became passionate about leadership and the development of people. In 2019, she was named the Small Business Associations Women in Business Champion for the state of Georgia, was featured in The Luxury Travel Advisor magazine and most recently in the Georgia Trend magazine for her innovative ideas for her company and the travel industry. In addition to leading a growing travel company, Tiffany serves on the National Board of Directors for ASTA, The American Society of Travel Advisors, and is a board member for the Athens Area Chamber of Commerce.

In her spare time, she can be found devouring business books, listening to podcasts and exploring the world with her husband and teenage daughters, and during football season, supporting her beloved Georgia Bulldogs.
